22 December 2009

In the past year Cornerstone Productions has had the good fortune to incorporate Michele DeLima's copywriting skills into our marketing program. By writing press releases for our upcoming projects and helping us penetrate several new untapped markets, Michele helped us achieve sales growth of 20% for 2009.

Michele is organized, imaginative and focused. She is a team player as well as an independent thinker. Her ability to run with a project has freed up my time and has allowed me to focus on other facets of my company. Once you begin an undertaking with Michele you quickly find her to be a refreshing, valuable and indispensable asset to your organization.

If you have any questions about Michele's qualifications or abilities please feel free to contact me at (860) 572-7772.

Sincerely,
